Dear {FIRSTNAME reader},

Early this summer the issue of homosexuality came up again. Not because of the Gay Shame parades everywhere. This time it was the problem the Protestant churches have, especially the Anglicans. They are said to be at the brink of break-up because of the gay issue: Ordination of gay priests, blessing of gay marriages or partnerships and partly because of women priest ordinations.

It's really a tough matter. Here is a church which wants to lead its followers in the name of Christ. They want to and need to teach their faithful in the teachings of God. Yet those who call themselves "progressive" or "liberal" think their church has to hang the flag of its teaching into the wind of the times. And if the wind of the times is relativism and "everythinggoes-ism", well then gay lifestyle has to be embraced and taken up into the church.

What do these people think? Are they of the opinion that God will change His mind and laws just because of homo-trend Number 579? He is no politician. He does not have to give in to polls. Yes, these ideas have been coming up since the creation of humans at least once every century for sure. We have heard about the mores of the peoples in the lands the Lord promised to give to the Jewish people on mount Sinai. You'll find them mentioned in Leviticus in great detail. We read about them in the story of Sodom and Gomorrah. And there is plenty of reference in the New Revelation as well. What was the first battle cry of the 1968 revolution which originated in Paris? Yes, no mores anymore, no rules, we want "freedom" and "free sex".

Satan had made another attempt. He was pretty successful for a while. He will continue and will lure more people into his wrong ways. He is a thief and a liar. And why did many African bishops not show up at the Anglican synod at Lambeth? Because they believe that the law of God is eternal and they have enough pressure in their countries from Islam which, as everybody knows, severely punishes homosexuality. Lets not forget in Africa a war for souls by Islam is going on with all means available. (And not only there: Recently two protestant churches in Germany were transformed into mosques (!), LeMonde.fr, Nov. 8, 2007.)

At the end of the synod a paper wrote that the Anglican church leaves the meeting "disrupted". So, we can only pray the Lord that not another definitive split will happen in the Christian family. As Christians let's pray for them.

God bless

1. in the news

The Big Bang Machine.

The New York Times reported on September 11: "After 14 years of labor, scientists at the CERN laboratory outside Geneva successfully activated the Large Hadron Collider, the world's largest, most powerful particle collider and, at $8 billion, the most expensive scientific experiment to date."

Yes, the biggest machine on earth. And you will remember some scientists warned that those experiments may be dangerous. They could start a chain reaction which may develop a black hole in which the earth, even the solar system, could disappear.

seriousness; I must give these people protection against the attacks by the idolaters – no matter what it costs! The Persian king is also only a vassal of Rome and is subordinate to me; oh, a stop should soon be put to the work of these vile creatures! Also You, oh Lord, should give these people a particular mercy; for they seem to me to be fully deserving of it!”

[03_192,02] I say, “In any case, otherwise I would not have had them rescued from certain drowning by My angel; for where I perform something miraculous, there is certainly a very good reason. And here is no lack of reason!

[03_192,03] A great earthly wealth in the hands of such people is a true blessing from heaven for a whole land; if such people also possess a higher wisdom, they can perform miracles for the true good of humanity.

[03_192,04] But a great wealth in the hands of a greedy person or a usurer is a curse from hell for a whole kingdom; for he seeks only to seize everything for himself at the cost of all people! No misery moves him, neither affliction, nor the tears of poor, deserted widows and orphans. Thousands can be on the brink of starvation before the cold face of a usurer, but he will nonetheless never give anyone a piece of bread to fill him up!

If men do not recognize Me, they will also be unable to recognize Him who sent me into the world and that I and the One who sent Me are one being!

Jesus, Great Gospel of
John, vol.2, 24 w18

[03_192,05] Therefore I also tell you that the whores and adulterers and thieves and savage murderers will enter the kingdom of God one day, but the soul of a greedy person and a usurer never; for this man cannot be corrected and therefore becomes the matter out of which the devils will build their deepest hell!

[03_192,06] A usurer is a true machine of hell, constructed for the ruin of all man, and as such it will remain for eternity the full property of hell!

[03_192,07] Put a king's crown on the head of a usurer, give him a sceptre and sword and a powerful army in addition, and there you have placed a Satan as tyrannical regent over the poor people who will not spare his subordinates the last drop of blood! He will rather strangle everyone than let them out of paying a single Stater! Therefore let every greedy man and every usurer be cursed by Me!

[03_192,08] But such people who have become extremely rich through the industriousness of their hands under the influence of mercy from heaven are a good and noble fruit of this Earth. They are continuing collectors for the weak and poor, they constantly build new houses for the homeless and weave clothes for the naked brothers and sisters. Therefore their reward will be great; for they carry the most beautiful and highest heaven already within themselves on this Earth!

Wealth, good-bad ?

[03_192,09] When their soul will one day leave their body, heaven will spread itself out from their hearts and place it in the centre, just as the rising sun spreads out its own light and revels then in the great centre of the all-animating and creating light emitted by itself!

[03_192,10] But other good human souls will only be blessed like the planets which rejoice in the warming and animating beams of the sun, but which still have a dark side however!

[03_192,11] Yes, My dear Cyrenius! To be rich on this Earth and only use as much for yourself as one really needs for the maintenance of oneself, that is, to be sparse towards oneself, in order to be all the more generous towards the poor, this, this is the greatest divinity even in the flesh on this Earth! But the greater this genuine and only true divinity exists in a person, the more blessings and mercy constantly flow to him from heaven!

[03_192,12] It is just the same for such a person as for the sun! The more they let their light flow out over the Earth, the brighter it shines in itself; but if they become more sparing with their sharing of their light in winter, even if only seemingly, then it is also in itself of a poorer and weaker light, even if it is also only seemingly so!

[03_192,13] Whoever gives much with love and joy, to him will also be given much!

[03_192,14] For if you place a strong light in the centre of a room, it will also shine back again from all the walls towards the middle of the light and will seize the strong light with a powerful glory, and thereby the original light will become even more magnificent, powerful and effective; but if you only place a weakly flickering lamp in the centre of a great room, the weakly-lit walls will only give back an extremely small light, and the glory of the original light will look very poor!

[03_192,15] Therefore you, abundantly equipped with the goods of this Earth, be generous, just as the sun in the sky is generous with its light, you will be the same and will reap just as the sun does!

[03_192,16] For you cannot sow a good seed in good earth without it bringing you a harvest a hundred times greater. But good deeds of a good heart are truly the best seeds, and the poor humanity is the best earth; never let it lie barren, but sow this earth lavishly and it will always bring you a hundred times greater harvest here and a thousand times greater harvest on the other side, for which I stand here as your witness!"

[03_193,01] (The Lord) "Certainly, one might well say here and there and also judge: Yes, yes, it is good to preach about the virtue of generosity and to present a greedy person as a most despicable vice; but who could actually help the fact that the overwhelming tendency towards wasteful generosity in one person has a true reason while another has the very sheerest greed?! For both people it is the same thing, an external appearance of their inner love, from which a blessed feeling awakes of its own accord which he then, like every other, keeps for himself. But the first man only becomes sad if he does not possess such an abundance that he cannot make his poor neighbours happy, and the second becomes sad when he does not receive as much as he wishes – or even loses! That being so, everything lies in the nature of the person from his origin, and then basically there can be neither a vice nor a true virtue. For the greedy person generosity is a vice - and for the generosity greed is just as much so. Can water help the fact that it must be of a very softer and more flexible nature, and who can damn a stone because of its hardness?! The water must be as it is, and the stone likewise as it is.

[03_193,02] On the one hand that is quite right; the nature of the generous person is to be generous, and the nature of the greedy person is the exact opposite. But things happen like this: With the pressure of selfishness and greed every man comes into the world as a child, and his soul still thoroughly possesses the rawest, matter-sourced animal component in it, and this applies namely to those souls which are not from above, but from this Earth. But those souls which came from the stars to this Earth are also not quite free from this component.

[03_193,03] If man is now brought up in the environment of this animal component he then absorbs it more and more in his reason for living, that means in his love; but because this is animalistic, the person also remains for ever a savage animal and has nothing human but the shabby form, the loosened tongue and as a consequence of the orderly brain a well-regulated cognition, which however constantly is prompted by the animal component to disdainful activity. As a consequence it can only recognise as good and blessed what the purely animalistic component wants.

[03_193,04] Now if someone wants to claim that there is no virtue in the actual sense of truth and thus also no vice, and that one would be unjust in damning the greed in comparison with generosity, he should be directed to My illustration; he should observe it and consider it!

[03_193,05] But if a gardener plants two fruit trees in his garden and cares for them as he should, it will surely be of no matter to him if only one of the trees bears fruit, but the other, being of the same kind and standing in the same earth, nourished by the same rain and dew, the same air and the same light, does not bear any fruit, yes, not even a satisfactory canopy to provide shade? The insightful gardener will say then: That is an undutiful, ill tree which consumes all the juices that come to it; we will see whether it cannot be helped! Then the gardener will try all the means he knows and if all these means do not help in the end, he will cut down the unfruitful, ruined tree and put another in its place.

[03_193,06] Therefore a greedy and selfish person is a ruined person himself and cannot bring any fruit into the world because he consumes all life in himself.

[03_193,07] On the other hand a generous person is already in the correct order of life because he bears abundant fruit outwardly.

Whether you see
Me or not, I am still with you. If you have faith,
rely on My name,
have trust and
hope and love Me
truly, I am always with and among you.

Jesus, Great Gospel of

[03_193,08] But a tree cannot help the fact that it bears fruit or not; for it does not form the fruit itself, but the spirits rising in its organism from the just richness of nature form them through its power and through the highly simple and therefore also very limited intelligence. But man stands on a point through which the unlimited intelligence of his soul begins to form and to transform itself into a tree bearing the richest abundance of fruit of life.

[03_193,09] If he does that, for which he has all the means, only then will he become a true person in the true, eternal order of God; but if he does not do that, he remains an animal which has no life in itself as such and therefore also cannot bring any life to his neighbour through good and kind deeds.

3. reflections

He is here!

A heathen testifies about Jesus being the Messiah of the Jews! This is none else than the supreme governor Cyrenius, an older brother of Caesar Augustus. Thirty years earlier, Cyrenius and his younger brother Cornelius [Acts 10] as Romans were the first heathens who recognized the true nature of the new born Jesus. Especially Cyrenius worshipped Him already as a baby while he helped the holy family flee to Egypt (see 'Childhood of Jesus'). In this sequence Cyrenius is meeting up with Jesus and His following. Jesus stays near the town of Caesarea Philippi. Here, Cyrenius is talking to a group of Pharisees who wonder about the "miracle healer" of Nazareth.

[Great Gospel of John 03_156,03] (Cyrenius:) "Thus He is here, you can now be fully assured of that; but draw near to Him firstly in your hearts, and seize a serious desire to thoroughly turn away from all your old habits and sins, and then He will soon come to you Himself and give you the divine instruction of what you will have to do for the future!

[03_156,04] But He is truly the one you yourselves were thinking that He was! Observe Him and consider: That is Jehovah Himself as a man among the people! This is the One who created heaven and Earth and everything that is in and upon it!

[03_156,05] I tell you: He is the eternal original cause of all being and all life! In the never explorable power of His will resides the whole infinity; all the angel's power is only a slight breath from His mouth, and all light shines forth from Him!

[03_156,06] In brief, consider that this is truly the same person that gave Moses on Sinai the commandments for the people of Israel; but this people have forgotten Him and once again fallen into all vices! And He has now come to establish His people once again and to make them free from all evils of the soul.

[03_156,07] He wears therefore a beautiful pink tunic to show how much He still loves His people. But with the loose, blue coat He shows that He has also come to us heathens in order to turn us into His children as well! The coat covers the whole world and all the heathens belong there too.

[03_156,08] Now just consider everything that I have now said to you, and it will only too soon begin to manifest itself that I have not told you any untruth!"

4. excerpt

What is hidden in the 4th commandment?

Jesus is still near Caesarea Philippi with his following. Starting from a discussion about whether one can sleep out in the open without the comfort of one's bed (which Jesus confirms) the subject touches Moses' fourth commandment. To the amazement of many Jesus claims the earth and nature are also our 'parents'.

[Great Gospel of John 03_211,09] (Jesus:) Moses said, "Honor your father and mother, that your days may be long and healthy on the Earth!" With this Moses not only described the biological father and mother, but just as well the Earth and its constant life-giving power. Man should not turn his back on this, but instead keep it in high respect, and he will receive every blessing for that which Moses physically prophesied. The respect for the physical father and mother is good and necessary when the circumstances are according and seemly; but if what Moses prophesied is the word of God, then it must also have a general and uninterrupted effect like the sunlight!

[03_211,10] But if Moses' prophecy is only limited to the fact that only those who respect their parents have to maintain a long life and health on the Earth, then things obviously look very bad for those who have often lost this in the cradle and were then brought up by strangers! How should they respect their true parents whom they have never known?!

[03_211,11] Many children are often found on paths and streets; false mothers have conceived them in their lust and thrown them out somewhere soon after their birth. Such foundlings are often taken in by some warm-hearted and compassionate person and looked after; they then owe all their love and respect to these people. Moses says nothing about such adoptive parents, instead only about really true parents!

[03_211,12] But now the well-brought up foundling cannot possibly honour his true parents, because he firstly does not know them at all, and even if he did, he would secondly truly have no obligation before God or before all people to respect them, who conceived him through sinful lust and who, when he was born, immediately gave him over to death. But because such a person then according to Moses cannot possibly love and respect his true parents, would he then have no claim on Moses' prophecy? Oh, would this then be very pretty indeed and would it be accepted as the true word of God!

The various diseases are not intentionally sent by God, but allowed to occur as a remedy for souls, to draw them away from the world.

Jesus, Great Gospel of John vol.6,55. W68

[03_211,13] But further there are parents who bring their children up in all things that can only be called bad. They plant a genuine satanic arrogance in them in the cradle and teach them to be hard and unfeeling to everyone; such tiger parents teach their children at an early age to be cheeky, liars and deceivers! Should Moses really have meant his prophecy for such children who respect their terrible parents with all badness and evil because the parents want this from their children?

[03_211,14] What do the children of thieves, robbers and murderers really owe their parents? They can only naturally honour their parents if they are the same as their parents to a very great degree and do what their parents always do, so look: through theft, robbery and murder of foreign travellers! Can Moses' prophecy really apply effectively to such children as well?

[03_211,15] The only somewhat clear world reason must tell you that such a prophecy along with the Law of Moses would be a scandal of the first category for all the divine wisdom! How can God, the highly wise, give a law as a consequence of which even an angel in a fleshly body would have to owe love and all honour to parents who have come from the lowest hell into the flesh?!

[03_211,16] You see that Moses' Law, seen from this point of view, would be the greatest and craziest nonsense!

[03_211,17] So on the one hand it is clear and proven that everything that Moses said and decided is the pure word of God and therefore can eternally hide no nonsense in itself; but on the other hand, if one examines and observes Moses' Law in the old familiar and foolish way, as it has been examined and observed so far, it must be the most obvious nonsense before the judge's seat of all better human reason!

[03_211,18] Wherein lies the reason then that the Law of Moses, as it has been observed so far, must be nonsense despite the purely divine origin? Such a thing lies in the powerful misunderstanding of what Moses showed mainly with this Law, the general parents of the great nature, namely the Earth, as the created world for the human race as father, and its lap, from which countless children of all types and sort are born, as the true mother! These original parents should constantly be honoured and obeyed by man, and his back should never be turned to them, and then he will receive a long life in a healthy body and also a true well-being.

[03_211,19] A diligent person can also learn from these old parents the most goodness, greatness and truth, and build a great ladder on which the original father Jacob saw the angels of heaven climbing up and down. Whoever investigates the nature very seriously will force many blessings to come into the light for himself and for his brothers for their well-being.

[03_211,20] Therefore, My dear Ouran, do not be afraid if you have to spend a night in the lap of your old physical mother – nothing bad will happen to you!"

7. overview: the new revelation

Since the beginning of time God had been in contact with mankind. With every nation. In every century. Without interruption.

The form of communication differs. God came in the form of angels, He used prophets whom He instructed (e.g. Isaiah). He gave people visions (e.g. Swedenborg) or revealed His messages in dreams (e.g. Joseph) and He had people write by direct dictation (e.g. Moses).

Communications, instructions and messages did not stop with Jesus. Some churches, unfortunately, claim that Jesus said it all. With Him revelation stopped. Despite the contrary written in scripture.

The New Revelation, God's New Word, was received by dictation. Word by word. Every word of those 25 volumes was dictated to Lorber, Engel and Mayerhofer by the Lord. It took 37 years to finish. Some say it's the Eternal Gospel promised by the angel. It sure contains wisdom for generations of researchers.

The two new commandments Jesus introduced complementing the 10 of the Old Testament are "Love your God with all you power and all your heart" and "Love your neighbor like yourself". And added, that your enemy also is your neighbor (e.g. Luke 10:27).

Out of the seven Spirits of God three stand out: Love, Wisdom and Power.

1. In His New Word, the New Revelation, God reconfirms again and again that love is the basis of God. "The Father" really is God's love.
2. God created all beings - all angels, all souls, all spirits - out of love. It was out of His endless love that despite the high treason of Lucifer and one fifth of all created beings He did not destroy them but created the material universe. Matter is a prison and school through which He leads the rebellious souls back into His kingdom.
3. Out of love He created man and put him to test on earth and gave him the choice between good and evil.
4. Out of love He took flesh in Jesus, His "Son", suffered terribly, accepted utmost humiliation and sacrificed His physical body to free all humans from the slavery of sin.
5. Out of His love He gave mankind the privilege to become His children if they choose to obey. A privilege not even His first angels have.
6. Out of love He has been incredibly patient with mankind. But He also said that out of this love He will chastise mankind if they turn away from Him, lest they'll be lost. That happened and will happen again.
